

Hafiz Abdullah Amjad

Full-Stack Software Engineer

Lahore, Pakistan | +92 313 6491507

Abdullah.Work123456@gmail.com | Portfolio Website

linkedin.com/in/abdullah-amjad-3209b0285 | github.com/AbdRicher

Full-Stack Software Engineer | Shopify App Developer | AI Engineer | Backend Engineer

EDUCATION

|                                                                                                   |                    |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|
| BS – Computer Science, University of Management and Technology, Lahore                     | 2022 – 2026 |
| CGPA: 3.84 (Graduated, FYP grading in progress)                                            |                    |
| Final Year Project: A culturally-aware, multi-agent AI tutoring ecosystem for university students |                    |
| FSc Pre-Engineering, BISE-GRW Punjab Group of Colleges (PGC), Gujranwala                   | 2020 – 2022 |
| Matriculation, BISE-GRW, Gujranwala                                                        | 2018 – 2020 |

EXPERIENCE

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                       |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| Full-Stack Software Engineer, Integriti, Lahore                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Aug 2025 – Present (10 Months) |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Built and shipped 5 custom Shopify apps from scratch with Node.js, React (Polaris), and Liquid, owning the full lifecycle from architecture to deployment across Render, Fly.io, Heroku, and self-hosted VMs.</li><li>Developed 2 enterprise CRMs using Node.js, TypeScript, and Nest.js to automate complex business workflows; both are in active production use by clients.</li><li>Engineered 4 responsive Next.js websites, converting static designs into pixel-perfect, interactive pages with smooth animations.</li><li>Designed high-performance REST APIs and backend services with Node.js and Python (FastAPI) to solve heavy business-logic problems.</li></ul> |                                       |
| Software Engineering Intern, IPS Technologies, Lahore                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | May 2025 – Aug 2025 (3 Months) |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Built reusable UI components and backend APIs using the MERN stack.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                       |

PROJECTS

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                            |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|
| Custom Shopify Apps                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Node.js, GraphQL, Shopify Functions |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Developed 5 comprehensive apps from scratch to solve specific vendor problems, using Node.js, GraphQL, and cron jobs for automated product creation, alongside Shopify Functions for cart and discount logic. Architected robust, real-time product synchronization.</li></ul> |                                            |
| Enterprise CRMs                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Node.js, TypeScript, Nest.js        |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Engineered two fully-fledged Customer Relationship Management platforms built entirely from scratch to handle complex business workflows. Both systems are currently in active production use by clients.</li></ul>                                                            |                                            |
| Frontend Web Development                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Next.js, Tailwind CSS               |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Designed and developed highly interactive, pixel-perfect websites. Built integriti.io and integritistudio.com from the ground up, translating static designs into dynamic landing pages with advanced animations.</li></ul>                                      |                                            |
| AI Tutor System – FYP                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Multi-Agent AI System               |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Built an Agentic AI system designed to help University students adjust to university, using multiple AI agents working together to provide personalized academic and social support.</li></ul>                                                                                 |                                            |

COMPETENCIES & TECHNICAL SKILLS

|                              |                                                                  |
|------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Languages:            | JavaScript (ES6+), TypeScript, Python, HTML/CSS, Liquid          |
| Frontend:             | React, Next.js, Tailwind CSS, Redux                              |
| Backend:              | Node.js, Express.js, Nest.js, FastAPI, GraphQL, REST APIs        |
| Database &amp; Tools: | PostgreSQL, MongoDB, SQL, Docker, Linux, PM2, Nginx, Git, Render |